

Samueli Theater

Capacity: Maximum capacity including main floor and mezzanine – 300 stadium seating, 320 club/cabaret-style with tables of four, 600 general admission and cocktail reception, variable for banquets, meetings, seminars and other special events.

Aesthetics: Samueli Theater is part of the structure that also includes the Renée and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall, but has its own lobby. Beige Portuguese limestone and glass façade includes a marquee of frosted laminated glass panels. Interior of maple hardwood floors, split block and maple walls.

Patron accommodations: Concessions and first aid station.

Box office: Segerstrom Center's primary box office for all advance ticket sales is located at the street level entrance to Segerstrom Hall and is open daily 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. or until one half an hour after curtain time on performance days. For day-of events, Samueli Theater has its own private box office in the lobby open one hour prior to performances for event ticket purchases and will call.

Technical specifications: Room dimensions – 57' 4" x 81' 4"; floor to grid – 23'; maximum stage size 32' wide x 20' deep; contact venue technical director for lighting and sound specs; loading dock available. Various configurations include thrust stage, club-style, seminars, banquets, special events. Some acoustical adjustment available.

Artist Accommodations: Three dressing rooms accommodating four people each; more rooms subject to availability; six private practice rooms; two larger rehearsal spaces (subject to availability); performers lounge.

Center presentations: Concert Series, Jazz Club Series, Cabaret Series, Off Center Series, Family Series and special events.

Resident companies: Pacific Symphony, Philharmonic Society of Orange County, Pacific Chorale.

Exclusive Caterer: Patina Restaurant Group, (714) 556-2122 ext. 4202

Additional technical information: Theater Operations, (714) 556-2122 ext. 4363

